

Charleston-Kanawha Housing Highlights

December 2008

Resident Recognition

Charleston-Kanawha Housing Authority hosted a resident recognition luncheon on December 16, 2008. Residents were treated to lunch from the Olive Garden and recognized for serving on the resident council all year and for doing special things for residents in their community.

The following residents were recognized for helping in their community:

Donna Matheny, Lippert Terrace

Ruby Harris, South Park Village

Georgia Day, South Park Village

Evelyn Adkins, Carroll Terrace

Debbie McCartney, Littlepage Terrace

David Wagner, Littlepage Terrace

Sharon Lunsford, Washington Manor

Ron Willis, Washington Manor

Henry Womack, Jarrett Terrace

Phyllis Mullins, Littlepage Terrace

Not pictured, Virginia Nesmith, Debbie Knox and Jim Mullins.

Family Self-Sufficiency Graduates

Charleston-Kanawha Housing recognized three Section 8 Family Self-Sufficiency graduates at the December 8, 2008 Board of Commissioners meeting. Donald Baley is a retired auto technician, he worked at Frosty's Chevron until they closed.

Deborah Deborah Wentz signed up for the FSS program to try and better herself. Ms. Wentz said, "It encouraged me to get my GED, to become more self-sufficient and hold a job." She works for Wendy's Inc.

Hilton Nazario decided to take advantage of the FSS program after gaining custody of his son. He said, "I have accomplished independence and I was able to be an example to my kids of what faith, perseverance and hard work can achieve when you believe." Mr. Nazario is a full-time teacher at Charleston Job Corp.

Donald Baley is pictured with the CKHA Board of Commissioners

Deborah Wentz is pictured with the CKHA Board of Commissioners

Hilton Nazario is pictured with the CKHA Board of Commissioners

Staff Recognition

Charleston Kanawha Housing Staff held their recognition luncheon on December 19, 2008. All staff were recognized for achieving a high performing agency status in 2008 and some staff received special recognition from their co-workers and for perfect attendance.

Staff receiving perfect attendance in 2008.

The following staff received special recognition for helping out a co-worker during the year:

Shirley Mullins

Anna Blaney

Kay Casto & Holly Eades

Tammy Good-Knight

Terry Estep

David Puckett

Butch Ransom

Amy Lewis

Janet Morris

Kenny Powell